

SOLE SOURCE LETTER

ALICE is the leading proactive, options-based training program that increases the odds of survival during a Violent Critical Incident. ALICE, which stands for Alert, Lockdown, Inform, Counter, and Evacuate is a post-Columbine survival strategy that goes beyond the conventional lockdown-only response.

This letter provides notification that the ALICE Training Institute, LLC is the inventor and sole source for all of the following:

- ALICE e-Learning courses
 - 16 ALICE foreign language e-learning courses
- ALICE Instructor Certification Courses
- All ALICE posters, bookmarks and related merchandise

As a result of over a decade of active shooter training (methodology, principles, processes, techniques, tools, protocols, documentation and educational programs) we have created a portfolio of intellectual property rights that includes US trademarks and copyrights.

ALICE is endorsed by law enforcement across the country and aligns with recommendations from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), the Federal Emergency Management (FEMA), the US Department of Educations, and multiple state governments across the country.

Respectfully,

Dave Mueller
